

An Exciting Evening of Blues Music, Barbeque and Dancing!

WHAT: A fun evening for you, your friends and your corporate colleagues filled with live blues music, catered barbeque, silent and live auctions with exciting items, and lots more surprises! It's all to help thousands of adults emerging from life crises get back to work with dignity.

WHEN: Sunday, October 4, 2009
5:00 pm – 9:00 pm
Attire – Denim Chic

WHERE: Lakeside Lagoon
At the Verizon Amphitheater (405 & the 133)
8770 Irvine Center Drive
Irvine, CA 92618

WHO: Since 1991, Working Wardrobes has helped nearly 50,000 at-risk adults emerging from life crises get back to work with dignity. We offer career-readiness and life skills workshops, comprehensive career development services and professional wardrobing and grooming that increase our clients' confidence and success in the interview process and in the workplace.

WHY: Nearly 22% of Orange County households fall into the very low-income bracket. Many of the adults who head these households are in great need of job-readiness services for "a hand up" to become self-sufficient. 91% of every dollar donated to Working Wardrobes goes directly to client programs.

SPONSORS: Blue Jeans & the Blues offers the chance to position your company's name, services and products to hundreds of influential and affluent members of the community. For individuals and families, it is an opportunity to make a positive impact on the lives of thousands of men and women who want to re-enter the workforce.

Presenting Sponsor.....$10,000	T-Bone Walker..... $ 2,500
B.B. King..... $ 5,000	Muddy Waters.....$ 1,000
	Stevie Ray Vaughan $ 500

INFO: For more information about the event: www.workingwardrobes.org/events
Individual Tickets $50.00, Couples Rate $75.00

CONTACT: Linda Knoth or Ro Gallant Brown, Co-Chairs
info@WorkingWardrobes.org
(714) 210-2460