Working Wardrobes is a strong advocate of social enterprise...

Clients served at our Women's Day of Self-Esteem

100% of proceeds from The Hanger Resale Boutiques in Tustin and Laguna Niguel benefit our clients, making up 35% of the organization's funding.

Our Mission

Working Wardrobes empowers women, men, and young adults overcoming difficult challenges to confidently enter the workforce and achieve self-sufficiency.

We provide career training, job placement assistance and wardrobe services in an environment of dignity and respect.

Your membership in Smart Women provides direct support for the women and men served by Working Wardrobes.

Now entering our 22nd year, we have served more than 55,000 adults from a diverse spectrum of backgrounds such as alcohol & substance abuse, domestic violence and transitional homelessness, by providing:

- Career readiness and life skills workshops on resume writing, interviewing, job searching and financial literacy
- Certification in customer service and retail sales through the National Retail Foundation
- Professional wardrobe selected with the help of personal shoppers
- Three annual motivational, wardrobe and grooming events: Days of Self-Esteem for women and for men, and "Dream Girls and Distinguished Gentlemen" Event for teens
